

Guidelines for Determining an Outstanding Delegate

Preparation	Speaking	Leadership	Policy
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Resolution/Position Paper is coherent, organized and well researched. Specific data and relevant sources are evident and cited, including current and historic UN research that pertains to the topic. <input type="checkbox"/> The delegates proposed solutions are realistic, are aligned with its country's policies, are well thought-out and demonstrate sophistication in solving problems that are multifaceted. <input type="checkbox"/> Demonstrates knowledge of the rules of procedures. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Delegate has a command of language, including vocabulary that relates to the topic. <input type="checkbox"/> Delegate uses appropriate gestures, eye contact, posture, voice projection, and intonation when speaking in committee sessions. <input type="checkbox"/> Delegate engages the audience, answering and asking questions confidently and respectfully. <input type="checkbox"/> Delegate speaks with a purpose and intent that is relevant. <input type="checkbox"/> Delegate utilizes diplomatic language and attitude while speaking, caucusing and listening. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Delegate moves the committee direction along in a manner accurately reflecting their country's policy. <input type="checkbox"/> Delegate maintains a high level of respect for and works positively with other delegates. <input type="checkbox"/> Delegate collaborates with other delegates and is sought out for opinion. <input type="checkbox"/> Delegate encourages the committee to keep topics at the forefront of discussion. <input type="checkbox"/> Delegate seeks to engage other member nations in discussions of issues during caucuses. Delegate shows ability and leadership in constructing working papers/resolutions with others.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Delegate articulates and stays in nation's policy. <input type="checkbox"/> Delegate has an understanding of other nations' foreign policy and seeks to make realistic alliances with other nations. <input type="checkbox"/> Delegate articulates policy through an understanding of current and historic research. <input type="checkbox"/> Delegate seeks reasonable compromises where possible, but maintains nation's policy.